Southland Multicultural Trust

Code of Conduct for Volunteers

1. Purpose of this Code

This code of Conduct describes standards of behaviour that are expected of volunteers of Southland Multicultural Trust.

2. Standards of Behaviour

When representing Southland Multicultural Trust representatives will:

- Be honest and fair in all your dealings
- Behave in a way that maintains and builds the reputation of Southland Multicultural Trust.
- Be mindful of the need to protect the environment
- Do voluntary work for Southland Multicultural Trust without the desires of personal gains
- Model excellent behaviour by not using illegal drugs or suffering from the effects of alcohol while at work

3. Create and maintain good relationships with each other and with the public

- Behave politely, sensitively and respectfully
- Value differences and behave in culturally appropriate ways
- Avoid behaviour that could be considered as harassment, exploitation, or discrimination
- Recognise and respect others roles, contribution, experience and skills
- Recognise and respect the different opinion, and support the right of all points of view to be heard
- Be supportive of all work done in the name of Southland Multicultural Trust.

SMT will strictly adhere to the Covid-19 guidelines at the time of the event. Depending on the level restrictions, we may require all staff, volunteers, stall holders, performers, attendees, and all other participants of this food festival to be fully vaccinated against Covid-19. Any update on government guidelines will be communicated closer to date should this policy be changed depending on the level restrictions we will be at the time of the food festival.

As of volunteer application under our current guidelines, you will need to disclose if you are fully vaccinated against Covid-19. Please be ready to provide your vaccine certificate which will be checked by our team.

CONFIDENTIALITY/DISCLOSURE FORM

Committee members/volunteers are not permitted to discuss anything that is discussed in a meeting or in passing with any person who is not directly involved in this committee. Any discussion must be in a professional capacity only.

All confidential information is to remain confidential, not copied or disclosed solely for the purpose and shall not be used for any other purpose.

Further to this, no committee member/volunteer is to give out any member's telephone number or personal particulars to unidentified persons or talk about the committee's business to people not involved in the committee without permission.

References to Southland Multicultural Trust and the committee in blogs or social networking sites must be neither objectionable nor restricted information. In particular, members/volunteers need to take care that they are not damaging the reputation of Southland Multicultural Trust.

If a member/volunteer is required to disclose any confidential information, to immediately notify and co-operate with the Manager /Chairperson or next in line, to try to avoid or limit such disclosure.

I have read, understood and will abide by this.

Disclaimer for Volunteers:

SMT makes every endeavour to provide a safe and secure working environment for all volunteers and not to ask any volunteer to perform a task beyond the competency of the volunteer or without appropriate training and supervision. However, every volunteer must take care of their safety well-being and the safety well-being of others around them. Volunteers should not undertake the task for which they do not feel competent or do work in a situation at SMT where they do not believe their safety is assured. Volunteers must act in a reasonable and safety-conscious way at all times. Skill and Employment details are collected for reference only and this is not served as any Employment assurance from SMT.

I declare that the above information is accurate to the best of my knowledge.
